5 COCKTAILS TO DRINK THIS LABOR DAY

Cocktails aren't the first thought when it comes to Labor Day. It's the start of football season, and with it comes beer. For those who still operate under liquor is quicker though, here are a few cocktails to try this Labor Day. There's absolutely nothing Labor Dayish about them, but I at least stuck with American booze because it's our holiday.

Aviation Rickey

Gin isn't just for the English and old people. Aviation is a new school, less juniper-forward gin made right here in the USA.

- 1.5oz Aviation Gin
- .75oz Fresh lime juice
- 1 tsp Simple syrup.
- Soda water

In Collins glass, add ice, spirits, and mixers. Stir. Top with soda. Garnish with lime wedge. Attempt to sip rather than gulp. Fail. Repeat.
