House Spirits Distillery Adds Airport Store

House Spirits Distillery opened a retail outlet at Portland International Airport (PDX) in August. The new store—House Spirits' second retail outlet—is designed to emulate House Spirits' original retail tasting room in Portland, Oregon's Distillery Row. The spirits selection includes the entire House Spirits portfolio, including Aviation American gin ($29.95 a 750-ml. bottle), Volstead vodka ($19.95 a 750-ml. bottle), House Spirits Series Coffee Liqueur ($19.95 a 375-ml. bottle), Westward Oregon Straight Malt whiskey ($49.95 a 375-ml. bottle) and House Spirits Series White Dog whiskey ($34.95 a 375-ml. bottle). The PDX location will remain open 365 days a year in the airport's Concourse D. In addition, the outlet sells barware, books, apparel, bitters and local products like Alma chocolates, Pok Pok Som drinking vinegars and Dry soda brand. House Spirits Distillery, which launched in 2004, has grown by 82 percent in the last year, thanks to increased business from locals and tourists, according to the company.
