

Roaring 20s Inspired 'Great Gatsby' Cocktails

By Dee Clarke

May 9, 2013

In honor of The Great Gatsby film's upcoming premiere on Friday May 10th, what better way to get into the spirit than mixing up a few 1920s inspired cocktails that would have gone down a treat back in the day.

Celebrate like a high-spirited flapper while enjoying Aviation American Gin, along with a selection of delicious cocktail recipes:

Aviation Rickey

Ingredients:

1 ½ oz. Aviation American Gin
¾ oz. Freshly pressed lime juice
1 tsp. Simple syrup
Top with Soda water

Method:

In a Collins glass, add ice, spirits and mixers. Top with seltzer water and stir. Garnish with a lime wedge.

Soyer's Gin Punch

Ingredients:

1.5 oz. Aviation American Gin
¾ oz. Freshly squeezed lemon juice
1/3 oz. Simple syrup
½ oz. Luxardo Maraschino liqueur
1 oz. Soda water

Method:

In a Collins glass, add ice, spirits and mixers. Stir and pour. Garnish with a lemon round.

Tuxedo Cocktail #2

Ingredients:

1 oz. Aviation American Gin
1 oz. Dry vermouth
1 tsp. Absinthe
1 tsp. Luxardo Maraschino liqueur
1 Dash orange bitters

Method:

Stir all ingredients gently in a mixing glass with ice and strain into a chilled martini glass. Garnish with a lemon twist.

Celebrate like a high-spirited flapper while enjoying Aviation American Gin:

Embrace Dapper Glamor – Invite your female guests to channel their inner Daisy Buchanan or Jordan Baker by donning a drop waist, pleated or fringe dress. Meanwhile, guys can put on their best suit and complement their look with a sophisticated Tuxedo Cocktail #2.

Put On Your Dancing Shoes – Dance clubs became enormously popular during the 1920's, so challenge your friends to do their best Charleston. In between showing off their moves, your friends can sip on a Soyer's Gin Punch.

Make Sure To Set The Scene – Add a sense of place to your soiree by incorporating Art Deco décor to the mix. Your guests can admire the rich colors and bold geometric shapes with a glass of Aviation Rickey in hand.
